

Greetings tribal members,

My name is Hope Steele Jackson. I am running for tribal council-my second term.

I am a tribal member of the Confederated Tribes of the Goshute Reservation. I was born in Ely, Nevada to late Robert Steele and daughter of our now Eldest Elderly tribal member Florence Pete Steele both of Ibapah, Utah. I was raised in Ibapah, Utah for school I went to Ibapah elementary school 1- 6th grade, attended Indian placement program 7-10th grade in Salt lake city, and graduated in Price, Utah.

I continued my education in the nursing field for 25 years as a Certified Nursing Assistant, Health Unit Coordinator, Health Information Specialist, Skilled Nursing Facility Admissions including a Cosmetologist for the state of Utah/Nevada. I am currently a Assistant Health Director liaison for our Goshute Tribal Health Clinic in Goshute / Sacred Circle Health Clinic in Salt Lake City, Utah. I started my work outside our reservation in my earlier years with added learning experiences.

I have been involved in CTGR tribal politics since 2017 to present and have worked for positive changes for our reservation. As you know, during my last three years as councilwoman, I have been working hard on bringing in better increased income and wealth through new innovation economic development, natural resources, food system and Health which is very much needed for our members. I will listen to you with respect, be your voice and speak on behave of our tribe and make sure (we) the (people) always come first.

I would like to continue helping our Goshute Reservation in working on making our reservation better in many ways possible with good ideas, positive solutions for our tribe with the help of the Tribal Council and mainly the Tribal membership. Our concerns need to be heard and addressed in many ways. In running for Tribal Council, I will learn, grow and tackle every possibility to make our reservation better with you in mind.

In running for this elected office, I hope to get your vote for our ( BETTER TOMORROW )

Thank you,

Hope Jackson
